If not, this is the right time to try it out!. Roast the developers in the Roast Club:

Welcome to the Roast Club. The first rule of Roast Club: you DO NOT talk about Roast Club. The second rule of Roast Club is: actually for now you can talk about it, we're still short on members. Third rule of Roast Club: only two stars to a Roast. Fourth rule: one of them is a DEVELOPER.

You see, we were challenged by Sir Clearwater HERE... and we do accept the challenge!

So if you feel like Roasting someone talented and famous... that's NOT the place. But if you want to vocalize your vile thoughts about mothers, fathers, sons and all possible relatives of the humble developers, turn on Oh...Sir! The Hollywood Roast and enter the Roast Club! First meeting starts tomorrow, 13th of June, at 5 PM GMT+2!

To play with us, look for VileLemon - one of the designers and an experienced bare-chested master of insults.

<https://store.steampowered.com/app/363950>. Early Steam Release:

Hey folks,

We're on Early Access on Steam (rather earlier than you may have expected)! In short, don't panic - nothing has really changed. Development is forging ahead as before but we've had to make an adjustment regarding Early Access.

In order to stay in line with Steam's policies regarding selling the game through our website at the same time as the Steam store, we have entered Early Access in private mode earlier than initially planned.

In terms of development and patches, nothing has changed.

It was our original intention to enter Early Access at the same time as introducing multiplayer to the game. We've had to change this now that we have entered Early Access sooner, but will be releasing multiplayer at the same time as originally planned.

Apologies for any initial trouble with the Steam page or download. The issue is sorted now and you can purchase the game from the Steam page.. Get 8-bit version of Doodle God and save 60%!:
